=====

Music on the Lake:

Shakespeare in the Park had an estimated 75 audience members and the weather was overcast. The United States Army Band will not be able to play on the 7th of August due to some of the band members being transferred to other units. We have several options, one being Last Leaf Productions second play Richard III. Richard III is not a family friendly play.

Farmers Market:

The Lake Stevens Chamber of Commerce has taken on the administration of the Farmer's Market. They have made arrangements to have the market on Fridays, starting on August 1st to run through the 28th of September. They have expressed an interest to have Music on the Lake move to Fridays in 2015.

Round-About Art:

Commissioner Tietze has explored finding funding for this project. This included criteria for the National Endowment for the Arts. The deadlines for applying for these grants are unknown. To apply for grants we need to have:

- Budget, estimated amount
- Ideas as to what incorporates "Lake Stevens"
 - Logging
 - Trains
 - Water
- Kinetic sculpture
- Flags- to be designed by contest

This discussion was tabled until after Aquafest.

Chalk-it-Up

The City of Lake Stevens will pressure wash the North Cove Park sidewalk before Aquafest. We will have volunteers to help sweep the sidewalk prior to before the event. Ben Franklin gave us 15% off our new supplies. The Bistro will give us a banner to hang and menus to pass out. We will need to be vigilant about the garbage collection volunteers not to drive over the artwork during the event. The to-do list was brought up and chores were divvied up.
