Report on the Arlington Arts Commission meeting visit

*Report on the beer garden at Music on the Lake, 2011, by Tracy Stevens

The lack of community response to the beer garden came down to several things but the largest contributors were:

No farmers' market

Extremely bad weather

Event Chairs:

* Blooms Around the Lake: Gisela Hinchcliffe and Yevonne Noel

We were asked by the chairpersons to "talk it up".

* Sunnyside Nursery will be asked if they are still willing to sponsor gift certificates again this year

*Music on the Lake: Martin Reimers

Fall Gala: None at this time

Art in the Park: Gisela Hinchcliffe

Reflections judges: as needed

* Minutes corrected at Arts Commission meeting of March 28, 2012

Arts Scholarship:

It was moved and seconded to continue the arts scholarship to graduating seniors of Lake Stevens High School. Motion carried. Gisela will check to see if the Commission has the funds to continue.

New Business:

Farmers' Market:

Martin met with Becky and discussed the running of the market. Martin reported that Becky would handle the organizing, dealing with Insurance, Health Department and other permits. She was unable heavy work or the physical running of the market.

It was moved and seconded to take on the Farmers' Market as a sub project of the Arts Commission. Motion carried, with one nay.

The Commission would like to know where the money from the Market goes.

It was moved and seconded to appoint Tina Kitburi as lead person for The Farmers' Market project. Motion passed.

*Music on the Lake:

We will be listening to sample music from bands requesting to play this coming summer, next meeting

The Commission is looking into adding Shakespeare in the Park, Thursday, July 12. The choices will be Macbeth or Julius Ceasre.

The All District Jazz Band, directed by Mr. Keresky from Cavallero Middle School has requested Thursday, July 26 (Thursday before Aquafest).

The possibility was proposed that once the MbtL schedule was set to sending out the schedule through the Lake Stevens School District.
