Discussion/Action Items:

Projects 2019: Proposed Ideas:

1. Food Truck Festival: Commissioner Ehmen commented most of the trucks require upfront deposit and this will need to be studied for financial feasibility.
2. A "Lake Stevens Weekend" idea was proposed to be a Fall event to involve local culture such as native tribes, local cuisine, local artists, etc., with a proposed date of 18 months out.
3. The idea of holding a local dance event with tent rental and band/DJ, paired with a theme such as Nordic, etc., was proposed and discussed.
4. The idea of bringing a children's theater to perform was discussed. Local children's theater companies will be researched for possible booking for the upcoming summer 2019 season. The cost of an additional theater event was discussed as well and will be investigated for financial feasibility.
5. New recruitment of additional members to join LSAC was also discussed.

2019 Budget:

Commissioner Ehmen discussed how other cities have implemented rotating public art sculpture exhibits, and the budget for such ventures would require many thousands of dollars as it would require fine art shipping, insurance and heavy equipment installation.
