 - (2) Promotional
 - (3) Original (Commission revised on January 14, 2009)
- b. ORDER OF REINSTATEMENT - CANDIDATE:
 - (1) If a vacancy is to be filled from the reinstatement register, the following shall be the order of certification:
 - (a) Regular employees in the order of their length of service. The regular employee on such register who has the most service credit shall be first reinstated. (Commission revised on January 14, 2009)
 - (b) Probationers, without regard to length of service. The names of all probationers upon the reinstatement register shall be certified together.
 - (2) Upon request from the appointing authority, the Secretary may authorize the reinstatement out of such regular order upon a showing of efficiency or that such action is for the good of the service, after giving the employees adversely affected an opportunity to be heard.
 - (3) Nothing in this rule shall prevent the reinstatement of any regular or probationary employee for the purpose of transfer to another department, either for the same class or for voluntary reduction in class, as provided in these rules.
- c. CERTIFICATION.
 - (1) If a vacancy is to be filled from a promotional register, the Secretary shall certify to the appointing authority the names of the five (5) available candidates who stand highest on the appropriate register. (Commission revised on May 7, 2008)
 - (2) If a vacancy is to be filled from an original register, the Secretary shall certify to the appointing authority the names of up to five (5) qualified available candidates who stand highest on the appropriate register. (Commission revised on May 7, 2008)

- d. MULTIPLE VACANCIES. If two or more vacancies are to be filled from any of the above registers other than the reinstatement register, the name of one additional person shall be certified for each additional position.
- e. ADDITIONAL NAMES. If an appointing authority makes an acceptable showing that any of the candidates certified are not available or that they do not respond, sufficient additional names shall be furnished to complete the certification.
- f. SPECIAL SKILLS. Where a certification of candidates with special experience, training, or skills is requested in writing by the appointing authority as being necessary for satisfactory performance in a particular position, and the Secretary determines that the reasons fully justify the request, a certification may be made of only the highest ranking candidates who possess the special qualifications. (Commission revised on January 14, 2009)
- g. PRIOR SERVICE. If a temporary vacancy is to be filled from an open or a promotional register, those candidates with three months of service who are shown on the register as having been laid off within the last twelve (12) months from the department in which the vacancy exists, shall be placed in grade order at the head of the list of candidates for certification according to rule.
- h. APPLICATION/EXAMINATION. The application and the examination papers of a certified candidate shall be available for inspection by the appointing authority.

10.04 Deferment of Certification.

The Secretary may grant a deferment of certification of a candidate upon receipt from the candidate of a written request with satisfactory reason therefor. Such deferment will thereafter prevent certification of such candidate until the next vacancy occurring after the candidate has given written notice of their desire to be returned to the register, and such return has been approved by the Secretary.

10.05 Duration of Certification.

Certification shall be in effect for thirty (30) days from its date of issuance. The appointing authority must report of any appointment from such certification with the Secretary. Upon request, the Secretary may extend such certification for additional thirty (30) day periods. Expiration of eligibility shall not cancel the validity of a certification. (Commission revised on April 16, 1992)

10.06 Regular Appointment.

A regular appointment to fill a vacancy must be made from the names contained on the official certification. The official appointment report shall show the name of the person appointed, the effective date, the salary, the nature or duration of the appointment, and any other information required.

Where there is no suitable candidate register from which certification can be made, the Secretary may allow the appointing authority to recommend a temporary appointment. A temporary appointment may be made for a period of up to six months. A temporary reserve appointment may be made for a period of up to twenty-four months, and may not be extended for a longer period of time. No person shall receive more than one temporary appointment in any twelve-month period unless authorized by the Commission upon written notice provided by the appointing authority showing that unique circumstances exist to require subsequent appointments.

All temporary employment in a class shall cease at the earliest possible date and shall not exceed thirty (30) days from date of notice that a proper candidate register for such class is available. An extension may be granted by the Secretary upon satisfactory written notice provided by the appointing authority. (Commission revised on January 14, 2009; April 16, 1992)

11. PROBATION

11.01 Probationary Period.

- a. After each full-time or part-time permanent appointment from a candidate register, the employee appointed shall serve a complete period of probation before the appointment is deemed complete. (Commission revised on January 14, 2009)
- b. If a probationer transfers in the same class from one City department or division to another, the receiving department or division may, with the approval of the Secretary, require that a complete probationary period be served in that department or division. (Commission revised on January 14, 2009; September 25, 2000)

For Police Officers, the period of probation shall be equivalent to twelve months of full-time service following successful completion of Basic Law Enforcement Academy as administered by the Criminal Justice Training Commission. For all other employees, the period of probation shall be equivalent to twelve months of full-time service following completion of basic training. Minor absences due to vacations, annual military leave, illnesses, shall not be construed as interrupting the probationary period unless an absence or absences are considered to be excessive to the extent that the Secretary will approve a departmental request for an extension of the probationary period. The appointing authority may request that the probationary period be extended up to three months. (Commission revised on January 14, 2009; September 25, 2000)

11.03 Interruption of Probationary Period by Military Service.

11.04 Service in Another Class.

Service in a class or office other than the one to which a candidate is regularly appointed may be credited toward completion of a probationary period if the Secretary has approved the written statement of the appointing authority to the effect that the probationary period may be properly judged on the basis of service in the other class or office.

11.05 Removal of Probationer.

- a. GROUND. The appointing authority, by assigning in writing to the Commission the reasons therefore, may discharge any probationer. Such reason need not constitute just cause and shall not otherwise be reviewed by the Commission except as provided in Rule 19.01b. (Commission revised on January 14, 2009)

- b. PROCEDURE. The Appointing Authority must notify the Secretary in writing the reasons for the removal prior to the end of the probationary period. - (3) Transfer, in lieu of layoff, may be made with limited standing to a single position in another class in the same or a different department, upon showing that the transferee is capable of satisfactorily performing the duties of the position, and that a regular employee or probationer is not displaced. Regular standing in the new class may be attained by the employee only through examination and permanent regular appointment.
- (4) Transfer, in lieu of layoff, may be made with limited standing to a single position in another class when such transfer would constitute a promotion or advancement in the service provided a showing is made that the transferee is capable of satisfactorily performing the duties of the position and that regular employee or probationer is not displaced and when transfer in lieu of layoff under Rule 13.03(3) is not practicable. Regular standing in the new class may be attained by the employee only through examination and permanent regular appointment.
- (5) The Secretary may approve a transfer under (1), (2), (3), or (4) above with the consent of the appointment authority of the receiving department only, upon a showing of circumstances justifying such action.

13.04 Limit of Rule.

When an employee is reduced from an exempt position, the employee may petition in writing the Commission within 10 days of the end of employment in the exempt position for placement on a reinstatement register for a class for which the employee is deemed eligible. In considering the placement of the employee, the Commission may consider the employee's experience, the record of City employment, or such other factors as deemed in the best interest of the System. The Commission's decision shall be deemed permissive and discretionary, and an employee shall have no claim or cause for denial of placement on a reinstatement register.

- (6) The employee shall serve a designated trial period of one (1) month's service from the effective date of the reduction, in the position to which reduced for the sole purpose of satisfying the Commission that employee is capable of satisfactorily performing the functions and duties of such position or class (Commission added January 14, 2009).
